

Introduction: Can the Father of Nations really save the city?

1. The Father of Nations is able to save us from ruin... v1-29

"...God remembered Abraham and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow..." v29

2. ...but our love for the world can still leave us ruined! v30-38

Discussion Questions:

1. How does our safety from judgment, only on account of the Saviour's special relationship with God, humble us?
2. Where might we be tempted to compromise and become like the unbelieving world around us? In what areas do you need to "remember Lot's wife"?
3. Spend time praying together
